

Jack Zweigle

January 6, 2026

John C. "Jack" Zweigle passed away on January 6, 2026 after a brief illness.

He was the beloved husband of the late Pauline G. (Smith) Zweigle with whom he celebrated 64 years of marriage before her passing.

Jack was born in Everett, MA to Eugene W and Marion (Walker) Zweigle. He was raised in Everett, and graduated Everett High School in 1949. Shortly after high school, he served in the US Navy from 1950-1952 on the USS Midway and various naval stations.

After the Navy, he was employed by Raytheon for 37 years, retiring in 1992. Jack and Pauline raised their family in Peabody, MA and after retirement, they moved to Cape Cod where they lived (and walked the beach) for 20 years. They came off the cape and moved to Dracut, MA to be closer to family, Jack enjoyed woodworking, oil painting, and traveling, including several trips to Europe, but nothing made him happier than spending time with his family. The ultimate "Girl Dad" he was always up for whatever his girls wanted to do, and that continued with his granddaughters.

He is survived and will be missed by his daughters, Heidi Zweigle of Revere, Karla Ward and her husband Michael Ward of Nashua, NH, his granddaughters, Katie Ward Clegg and her husband Barry Clegg of Franconia, NH, Diana Dresser, and her husband John Dresser of Swanzey, NH, two great grandchildren, Julianna and Jack Dresser, and a close family friend, Dawn Marshall of Revere, MA. He is also survived by a sister Shirley Brent of FL and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was also predeceased by his brother, Eugene Zweigle.

At his request, there will be no services.

If you would like to make a donation in Jack's name, please consider the Disabled American Veterans at www.dav.org