

James "JJ" Joseph Michael Martorana (McNamara)

December 5, 2004 - November 17, 2025

James "JJ" Joseph Michael Martorana (McNamara) passed away suddenly on November 17, 2025. Born on December 5, 2004, JJ was a bright, spirited, and deeply loved young man whose presence touched the lives of many.

JJ was the beloved son of his late mother, Gina LeBlanc, and his stepfather, Jason LeBlanc of Deerfield NH, father James Martorana Jr, and his stepmother, Jamie Martorana of Hudson, NH. JJ had many siblings whom loved and cared for him deeply and will cherish the memories made together throughout the years.

He was especially close to his grandparents, the late Stephen McNamara and Maria McNamara of Deerfield NH who played a significant and guiding role in his life. Their influence and love remained with him always.

JJ's memory will be carried forward by family and countless others whose lives he touched. He was loved more deeply than he ever realized, and his absence leaves an immeasurable void.

He will be missed immensely, and cherished forever.

Private services held.

Tribute Wall

“ *Just a young man
A old soul who had
Many dreams but all ways
Even peoples harts touch
Spiral make everyone*

Everyone will know who a boxer was and forever a fighter
