“ My condolences to all her friends and family. Mrs. Brackett was my first teacher when my family moved to Hudson and an integral part in changing my educational path. She saw past my rambunctious nature and challenged me rather than passing me off to the principal as my previous schools had done. My mom still speaks of her when telling stories of my grade school years and I will always be grateful for her guidance. May she rest in peace.

“ Precious family of my wonderful, funny friend, Jan,

This life is but a "twinkling of the eye" (I can see Jan's in all her pictures)! Before we know it we will be with her where there are no more tears, no more sorrow, no more night, with our Lord, Jesus.

God comfort you all with these words.

In His glorious Name,

Kathy, Roy and Ken Bengner

“ To the family my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of loss. The holy scriptures can have a comforting effect for some. Our Lord Jesus at John chapter 11 tells of his loss of his good friend Lazarus and the hope we can have in the near future. Once again my deepest condolences.

“ I got to know Jan later in life when her mother married my father. We didn't get together often, but she and Eddie and Linda and David were a lot of fun to be with and hold a special place in my heart. She will be missed. My deepest condolences to Eddie and the rest of her family.

“ Having known Jan for many years as a co-worker and our son's second grader teacher I saw first hand what a kind and caring person she was. The picture here shows the warm smile that never left her face! Jan had wonderful whimsical jewelry from her trips especially to the southwest and such a flare for clothes! This lovely lady will be greatly missed and warmly remembered. Our sincere condolences to Eddie and their whole family.
