“ Jeff, I miss you! Your shoes will never be filled.

At Old Jim Days I had to run around to find someone to check IDs at the entrance, until the first time I asked you.

For the next 6 or 7 years you spent almost the entire 3 days at the top of the driveway socializing and ensuring no drunk drivers, until the last 3 or 4 years when you moved behind the grill for 3 whole days. You became the spirit and personality of OJD.

You were ALWAYS ready to help, always had a story, and loved to play the guitar. Rest in Peace Brother.

I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your son and brother. It's been years since I've seen Jeff and I remember him as a young playful boy/teen. I now see that Jeff was a lot of things to many people and will be missed tremendously. Just know that I am thinking about you and praying for comfort for you and your family.

“ Jeff was an amazing guy. I knew him from when I was little. We grew up with the same neighborhood friends. He was always smiling and he was always so much fun. One of the things I will remember the most is no matter where I would see him he would sit down with a serious face and start to tell a story. Sometimes I would get so into the story only to find out he was telling another corny joke. Another one taken to soon. R.I.P my friend! I love you.

“ To Jeff's Family
Please accept my condolences for your loss.
Jeff lived next door to me when he was Lori's roommate. He wasn't there a day before he let his presence know. Jeff would always be a willing participant to try any dessert I made.
I was fortunate enough to hang out with Jeff a few weeks back and reminisce about times in the neighborhood and Laugh!
Jeff, You will be forever in my heart!!!!

“ Loved having Cheffrey for a roommate. He was so lighthearted and full of joy for everyone else. I miss his late night meals. Always something amazing would come out. He would say I was the easiest person He ever cooked for. I never argued with his suggestions!! I loved him very much and part of me will be missing for a long time. 🙏🥹💜💔
