“ I still remember John putting a Cadbury Egg in my rabbit's cage one Easter for TJ to find. TJ checked that cage every time he came to visit looking for more eggs for the longest time! John got such a kick out it. He loved pulling practical jokes.
He will be missed, he brought such adventure to our lives!
Love and hugs to you Donna.

“ Beneath that gruff exterior lived a soft hearted gentle soul. He was a doting father, a loving, loyal, steadfast husband, and a fun part of our family for 50 years. My heart breaks for you Donna, but John will live on in all of our hearts. I will continue to send him virtual hugs (and you know what I mean). Sending much Love.

“ We will always cherish the road trips we took together and the fun we had. Our trip to the stockyard in Dallas Fort Worth and sitting at the bar while you and Donna tried the Rocky Mountain Oysters is one of our favorite!! We went on our first cruise with the "Hudson" group and really enjoyed it. I'm so glad that I have your seafood chowder recipe, it's certainly a family favorite. We will miss you dearly at our family gatherings when we can finally have them again. These are only a sampling of the wonderful memories you and Donna have given us. This is a tremendous loss for you Donna and the family. You have our love and sympathy.

“ Donna, I am so sorry for your loss. LOVED John's underground cooking! Whether it was beans or a pig, you could always count on it being delicious. He was quiet but with a great sense of humor. Loved the gatherings in Alton! You are in my thoughts and prayers, Donna. Hugs Holly

“ I'll remember John's delectable culinary creations, his quiet, dry sense of humor, and his steadfast loyalty to & support of family. And also, for some reason, the kick he got out of fooling someone with a zucchini pie disguised as an apple pie. :-)

My heart enfolds you in a hug, Donna, sending much love. Cathy Arredondo
