“ To my Uncle,

The moment that you left this world, my heart was split in two; one side was filled with memories; the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep; and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday; but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain; you see life has gone on without you, but will never be the same.

I love you Uncle John, Always.

“ My dearest Uncle John,

Some of my most fondest childhood memories are of my family going to NH in the summer to see my Auntie and Uncle and the boys. I couldn't wait to see you all. I loved you all so much then and my love grew even stronger as I grew older, the memories more cherished. It hurts so much to even think of you not being around any longer. I try to keep in mind that you are with God and Jesus now, healthy and strong. It helps, but not nearly enough because the pain is still there. I love you Uncle John - then, now and always. I will remember you with some tears, but also with love and cherished memories, in anticipation of the day that we will meet again.

“ A loss for us all,

I'm not quite sure, but I believe that I've known John and his son Steve for near twenty years. We met through business, but I believe we became friends not long after. He's always been nothing less than respectful and honest to me, my friends, and my family. A good man that will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.

*May you rest in peace my friend,

“ My Uncle

I will miss you dearly. No 4th of July will ever be the same. You, Auntie and the boys mean the world to me. I am very grateful for the times that we have all been together and for giving my daughter the same memories as she grows up.

*Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "UP ABOVE"*

I love you.
