March 21, 1953 - September 1, 2019

Jorge Kaufmann, age 66, passed away peacefully on September 1, 2019, surrounded by his loving family. Jorge was born in Havana, Cuba to the late George T. and Marta (Cata) Kaufmann. At the age of eight, his family moved from Cuba to Florida and then eventually settled in Mexico City, where he attended high school at the Vista Hermosa School. After graduating, his family moved to New England and Jorge attended Lowell Tech, where he received a Bachelor's in Electrical Engineering.

For the last six years, he worked for the consulting firm of Ross & Baruzzini as an exclusive consultant to the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey, where he was part of the team to rebuild the telecommunications systems at the World Trade Center Towers.

Jorge was an adventurous man of many talents and interests and loved the outdoors. He enjoyed history, music, traveling to new places and an ice-cold beer at the end of the day. Jorge was known for his generosity and charm and always knew how to bring a warm smile to every situation. He loved to dance, especially to Cuban music, where he showed off his unique moves. He also loved to quote movies, including his favorites - The Blues Brothers and Ghostbusters. He dedicated his life to his family and treasured nothing more than being able to spend time together with them.

Jorge will lovingly be remembered by his wife of 36 years, Cheryl (Corrao) Kaufmann, his son Jorge and his wife Angela; his three daughters - Leslie and her husband Mark; Angela and her husband Sean; and his daughter Kristina, as well as his grandchildren, Claire and Quinn, and his brother Eduardo and his wife Donna. “ Jorge was a wonderful neighbor, friend and adventure! I remember one dinner party we had: people came dressed as a certain character in a mystery we were about to solve. Jorge walked in with, what I thought, were pierced ears! He rendered many of us speechless!! He certainly will be missed in our neighborhood. As he walked his dog, he'd chat with anyone! Rest in peace.
