“ My condolences for the family on you deep loss. All survivors of a loved one go through much pain because this is not the way that our creator God intended as an end for us. I find and perhaps you do also that the experience of our Lord Jesus in his life can give a measure of comfort. The account about his loss of his dear friend Lazarus gives us much insight into what happens to our loved ones and the hope ahead you can find this at John chapter 11. Once again my deepest sympathies to you all.

“ I was a Junior Girl Scout leader in the late 90's and Julie was in my Troop. She was 8 yrs old at the time. She was a wonderful little girl and participated in every event that we held. We lost touch over the years but we're friends on Facebook.

It was a shock to hear of her passing, she was so young. May her family find peace during this trying time and know that she will forever be in their hearts and watching over them from above. RIP Julie..
