“ Very seldom will I write a tribute online like this, but in the case of a dear "old" friend like Keith, I feel I need to let his loving family know how truly special this man was. From the moment I first met Keith, I knew he was a treasure, as I am sure most, if not all, of his friends know. He was always warm, sincere, caring, and had a great concern for his fellow staff, especially at Library Street School. He was, by far, more than a custodian. He cared about everyone there in the building, being a true friend to all.

When he asked about working at the afterschool program with me, I thought he was kidding, but found out soon enough that the love he had for all those kids was more than I expected. We shared some great times, and many many laughs (I think I hear him now!). What it all comes down to is...Keith was one great guy, a gentleman thru and thru, and I'm so thankful that he was a part of my life. May all of you know that a treasure like Keith doesn't come along every day!
