

Kenneth B. Lee

January 16, 1931 - July 2, 2011

Kenneth B. Lee of Hudson and formerly of Lowell, MA died peacefully with loved ones present on Saturday July 2, 2011. He was born on January 16, 1931 in Nashua, the last child of the late George and Octavie (Maynard) Lee. Ken was predeceased by four brothers Raymond, Roger, Roland, and Norman, as well as by one sister Mildred. His former wife of 54 years, Mariette (Tessier) died in December of 2006.

Ken was educated in Nashua and graduated from the former Sacred Heart School in 1945 and later from Nashua High School in 1948. In March of 1951, at the height of the Korean War, he enlisted in the United States Air Force as a Flight Engineer. He later attended St. Anselm's College and Merrimack College. Ken worked for Raytheon in Hooksett, NH, Sanders Assoc. in Nashua, and later retired from Kalwall Corp. after being employed there for 29 years.

Ken was a total sports enthusiast, but his #1 passion was baseball. He played it, coached it, and later umpired. He volunteered for the Nashua Babe Ruth Program and coached both the Nashua Red Sox and the Nashua Indians for many years. His Indians team rewarded his efforts by winning back to back city titles in his final two years.

A special thanks goes to both Dr. Robert Yager and Dr. Naim Aoun and their superb staffs as well as to the Lowell VNA and Hospice services for their expert medical care.
