“ So many wonderful memories.....Kevin's smile and laugh were contagious to say the least! The love for his family were paramount. Gator rides, cribbage, watching Friends, and playing Madden Football were just a few of our favorite things to do together. Sending much love to the entire Rodonis family and loved ones!

“ Tend
Never gone are the lives of good spirits,
When always touched by their memories we tend,
For the sound of their laughter that echoes within us,
Our heartbeats will welcome until we embrace them again...
