“ Lenny loved the outdoors and I was fortunate to have been able to share some of the outdoors with him. From years ago meeting up for breakfast at the Milford Diner to prepare for the days hunt, to traveling to Pennsylvania, staying at the ABC Motel to try our luck with the old flintlock muzzleloaders, or in the Maine wilderness, I always enjoyed spending time in the woods and sharing a few stories of the days hunt with him. Lenny was an outstanding example of a sportsman, and the time we spent together in the truck or in the woods has made me a better sportsman as well. The one thing Lenny loved more than the woods and water was his family, and from what we shared during our times together I can say he couldn't have been prouder of you all. He will be missed.
