

Leslie Anne Priest

October 22, 2023

Leslie Anne (Drucker) Priest of Nashua, NH, passed away peacefully in her sleep on Sunday, October 22, 2023, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Leslie was the beloved wife of John Priest of Nashua; devoted daughter to parents Allen and Avis Drucker of Chatham, Massachusetts; loving sister to Vicki also of Chatham, and unapologetic mom to three spoiled pugs: Magoo, Baloo, and Rocco.

Raised in Framingham, Massachusetts, Leslie graduated from Syracuse University, where she became a lifelong fan of Orange men basketball. A long-time employee of Teledyne FLIR in Nashua and more recently Hudson, New Hampshire, Leslie served in a variety of roles in the sales organization where she touched countless lives with her professional competence, positive spirit, and genuine desire to bring culture to corporate life.

Despite the physical toll of her battle with cancer, Leslie made time for everyone. Whether reaching out to encourage others in their own fight or to send cards or flowers to make someone's day a little better, Leslie had an ability to make everyone she encountered feel valued and appreciated. She will be terribly missed by the many co-workers and friends who came to know Leslie—each with their own memories of her intuitive acts of kindness, infectious sense of humor and above all, her love. She fought with the strength of a warrior and loved with the heart of an angel.

All services will be private.

“ *John,
My heart goes out to you and her family at this difficult time. Words can not describe how sorry we are.
I'm glad I was able to be with you both recently. She was one of the strongest, bravest person I knew. She fought hard until the end.
She will always be remembered.
Dave and I are here if you need anything.
Love Debbie & Dave*
