

Linda Mayer

November 30, 1950 - March 28, 2019

Linda Mayer, 68, of Hudson, NH, passed away on Thursday, March 28, 2019, following a lengthy illness. She was born November 30, 1950 in Dorchester, MA, daughter of the late John and Marie (King) Deane. Linda will be met by them in heaven, along with her dear son Luke, who passed away in 1984.

Linda enjoyed watching Days of our Lives as well as the Game Show Network. She was a big fan of playing Wheel of Fortune on her phone, playing BINGO, and was one heck of a rummy player, she always seemed to win. A cold Dunkin's iced coffee was one of her favorite accessories and she was very particular about how it was made. When a Dunks wasn't available, a Diet Coke could hit the spot too. Linda adored her children and grandchildren. The family will always treasure the happiness they shared together.

Linda's loving family includes three sons and a daughter; William Mayer, and his wife Katie, of Manchester, NH, Tamara Mayer, and her fiancé Jeff Pearce, of Little River, SC,

John Mayer, and his fiancé, Ashley Owens, of Little River, SC, Brandon Mayer, of Nashua NH, six grandchildren; Jaxson Mayer of Manchester, NH, Jayden and Mason Pearce of Little River, SC, Lilith Mayer, Julian Mayer and Arabella Mayer of Little River, SC, as well as nine siblings; Alison Douglas, Bonnie Maling, Nancy Kather, Paul Deane, Michael Deane, John Deane, Timothy Deane, Thomas Deane and David Deane, and many nieces and nephews.

“ Linda became a good friend of mine while she was at Fairview for rehab. I enjoyed visiting with her, making her laugh with my stories, and sharing pics of my vacations. I can honestly say I made her day when I decorated her Christmas tree. Linda was so looking forward to getting back home. I wanted to help make her little space feel like home.
Not sure if she knew I was her Secret Santa..
Linda is missed.. may she RIP.
