On August 21st, 1982 Lisa married her soulmate and loving husband Clinton M Weaver Jr who she was married to for 41 wonderful years. with her husband and children along with her dog Penny. Lisa and Clint were truly a single soul as they did everything together whether it was camping, riding their motorcycle, or going on various day trips together. Their children often admired the way they continued to “date” each other after all their years together. Lisa loved being surrounded by her family, playing cribbage and spending time with all seven of her grandchildren. Lisa loved deeply and selflessly, she was a beautiful soul through and through. “ I dedicate 2023 to my sweet and beautiful friend Lisa M Weaver . She fought the good fight and gave it her all but in the end it took the best of her. She is my hero! I will love her forever. She saved me from such loneliness. I have known Lisa since 1976. I met Lisa one day in the cafeteria of Alvirne High School as a pitiful soul I was wondering through the cafeteria looking for a place to sit. She took pity on me and asked me if I would like to sit across from her. From that day forward we were friends. She was my savior! And the first friend I had made since I had moved to New Hampshire. Lisa was an amazing soul, and awesome friend and the years that passed from then until now have been memorable and sweet. From weekend nights out, stealing Sundays away to do what friends. Wedding dress shopping, flower shopping, thank you Charlenes! Labor and deliveries, decades of Christmas shopping on the first Friday in December, cribbage on Tuesday night forever and ever! Truffle fries at Buckley's Great Steaks Never a fight, never an argument never a disagreement and never a loss of touch base. That was difficult to do with Lisa because if she couldn't get you by text or by email she would call you at your house on your cell phone and be diligent until she was able to touch base with you. One of the things that I love about her the most. Decades of friendship, her love of chicken fingers, Secrets, which she always shared with Clint Weaver ! And I did not mind one bit because he is a true and special friend as well. Birthday parties and summers adopting Brandi Patrich, NASCAR racing and cookouts while we waited for the parking lot to empty. Later in life the first Friday in December 12 to 14 hour shopping days were chiseled down to eight as we aged and had our ailments. She always stood by me knew my secrets and supported me you thru trials and tribulations and encouraged me and was truly one of the best friends one could ever ask for. She is in my heart and in my thoughts and in my prayers. She is in heaven for sure. She was truly an angel. The thought of not being able to ever speak to her again it can only be offset for the day that she called me from her chemotherapy appointment and called me sweetie and asked me how I was doing.! She is my truly deepest longest and sweetest friend. My life is less without her. God bless you Lisa.

I will miss her I'll, her quick wit, her skill at making a gazillion schedules all makes sense in coordinate, her devotion to her students and to her colleagues, and the special little Christmas chair she would leave on my desk at every time this year.
