“ Dear Gram,

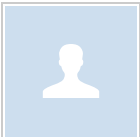

We love you so much.

I have so many fond memories of your house on The Cape, vacations in Block Island, playing Kings in the Corner and checkers with you, listening to Frank Sinatra on cassette tapes, that time we were watching Star Wars and you asked “Who’s that little twirp?” in reference to Yoda, and this doesn’t even scratch the surface.

You will always be in our hearts and on our minds, and the Leary’s and the McGorty’s love you forever ❤️

*Love,
Sean*

“ Dear Gram,

We have countless memories from Cape Cod, Block Island, and coming to visit you and the Nager's on thanksgiving. Your genuine support for me and ability to make everyone smile was one of a kind. I'll always remember Sean as a kid starting his sentences with "my friend Gram" before telling a story about you. And that's the kind of relationship we shared. I loved listening to your stories and your quick wit. You'll be missed every day Gram. I love you.

*Love,
Kevin*

“ Gram,

Finding the words to describe my love for you has probably been the hardest thing I've ever had to do. We have created so many memories from visiting you on the Cape to family vacations on Block Island to having you move in with us. To have you so close to us was truly a blessing. When I walked into your room, I could always count on watching a black and white movie or listening to Tony Bennett or looking through old family photographs. My fondness memory was seeing your excitement when I offered to brush your hair. Your family was everything to you and you are everything to us, especially me! Our bond is one of a kind and I will cherish it forever! My heart is at ease because I know you aren't in any pain and you are reunited with your beloved husband. You are my role model, my strength, my hero and now my angel! Rest easy Gram ❤️

*Love always,
Tara*

“ Dear Mom,

Thank you for being the best Mom and Gram we all could ever hope for. We all love you and will miss you dearly, but are happy that you and Dad are finally together again. You have always been my role model and will continue to be. I will cherish all the time we spent together growing up in CT as well as being together at your home on Cape Cod, here in NH, and on Block Island. We have loved, laughed, hugged, and cried. I will probably add more of my thoughts later as we all toast you with a glass of Bailey's Irish Cream!

Love, Kathy and Urs

with each. A line of people were following at the back, Blue at their lights, we danced...
Your tiny handlike reached to touch. The man who'll be outside. He'll never from the hospital bed,
The shining of your youth like hair, divided on the reality of a man's love. The train measured to their disappearing...
Oh as when a man gave the feel of power on your game and you are hearted among those and children. The kids at play in our was-remembered past
