“ Although we had never met Lucille, it always put a smile on our face to see her tending to her lovely flowers and potted plants during Spring, Summer and Fall.

It warms our hearts that you are continuing to celebrate Christmas by lighting her home for all of us at Canberra Village to see.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Sincerely,

Jack and Chris Walker

“ We are all very sorry for your loss. Upon meeting your mother a few times you could tell she was a gracious and dignified women. she always seemed to enjoy all family functions and especially drew great pleasure in watching her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

It was obvious family meant a great deal to her and she appreciated everything they did for her.
