

Margarite Gruenfelder

January 29, 1936 - December 5, 2021

Margarite Katherine Gruenfelder, called 'Maggie' or 'Mom' or 'Grandma' or 'GG' or 'Marge' or 'Mrs. G' in all of the different roles she played to the people who loved her. She was a true New Yorker in her "heart of hearts" despite having spent the last more than 50 years in Hudson NH.

She passed away suddenly on Sunday, December 5th in her home. She was a high spirited and happy lady and always enjoyed a family party or BBQ. Christmas was easily said to be Maggie's favorite time of year. She loved the chaos of cookie baking day and decorating the tree and any and all things that offered seasonal merriment. Her family was obviously her most valued treasure to any who knew her. She worked for the Nashua School district as well as Southern NH Hospital formerly Memorial Hospital in Nashua. She was a member of St John the Evangelist Church and very much enjoyed playing bridge with friends at the Hudson Senior Center. She was known for her favorite saying... "to make a long story short."

Maggie was born, January 29, 1936, the oldest child to the predeceased, Kurt Regewitz and Katherine (Schneeberger) Regewitz and sister to Werner Regewitz. Predeceased by her husband of 54 years, James Gruenfelder. She will be missed by friends and family alike including her children: Katherine Erb, Christine Swanson, Christine Doucet and her husband, Norman, James Gruenfelder, Mary Elizabeth Whittemoore and her husband, Barry, John Gruenfelder, and Nancy Sherwood and her husband, Alan. Grandchildren: Justin St. Laurent, Audrey Lassar and her husband Ernie, Joseph St. Laurent, Bill Small, Russell Small and his wife Sally, Ambrose Willis his wife Emily, Dakota Metz, Brooke Metz, Ashley Allen, and Sarah Straube and her husband Sean, Daisy Gruenfelder, Evan Gruenfelder, Stephen Martin, Devin Martin and his wife Taylor, Melissa Belisle and her husband Randy, Thomas Gruenfelder, Charlotte Gruenfelder. Virgil Sherwood, Julieanna Sherwood, and Ezra Sherwood. Great-grandchildren include Fiona, Dominic, Morgan, Cole, Owen, Simon, Hailey, Kylie, Dakota, Anthoni, Addison, Christian, Blaize, Bennett, Blakely, and Brooks.

A time of visitation will be held on Thursday, December 9th from 9am -10:30am with a Prayer Service at 10:30am in the Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home, 50 Ferry St., in Hudson. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations be made in Maggie's loving memory to either St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at www.stjude.org or American Society for the Prevention and Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) at www.aspca.org

“ I will never forget how she welcomed everyone into her home and made them feel like family. I loved her energy, and the way she told a story and her eyes and smile when doing so. She was clearly the biggest fan her family could ever wish for, and you could see she loved them all dearly and equally. Her heart was pure and just "happy". Heaven has gained a beautiful angel and it was a privilege to know and love Mrs. G. My heart goes out to the entire family, and I wish you all peace and comfort in knowing you were lucky enough to have her in your lives for as long as you did <3

“ Listening to her accent always brought me back to times of "tawking" and sharing stories about our NYC 'home town.' I saved every one of her letters and enjoyed our recent pandemic correspondence. She was a lovely, special person and she will be missed. Rocky and I are very sorry for your loss.
