“ Dear Mark, I wrote you a letter but I don't have your address in heaven. Can you send it to me? My heart aches and my mind still won't believe that you're really gone. It just doesn't seem possible to me. I love you dearly.

“ Mark you will be missed by so many! We spent so many years together, loving each other, making a family and even though we both moved on the children we made together and the memories we made together will be cherished for many years to come. Be with Jared and Chelsea now, just be their Father and take care of your family until I join all of you. No more pain, nor sorrow , nor hate or regrets. Just a beautiful, peaceful love and light to embrace you and welcome you Home ✨

“ Mark was everything the definition of amazing is. He was a fantastic brother-in-law! He was my good friend too. He made himself available to everyone. Seeing others happy made him happy. He told me recently that it made his heart happy to finally see me happy and content in my life. That meant the world to me. I could talk with him about anything! One of the things I loved most about Mark was how much he loved my sister Patti. He expressed in both actions and words every day the love he had for her. And it was beautiful! This world won't be the same. I have a hole and an emptiness in my heart knowing I'll never be able to see him or talk with him again. I'm really going to miss his hugs. I always told him he gave the best hugs I've ever received. I already miss him so much! It was an honor to be part of his life! He was truly a very special person!

Mark was a great friend to me at camp. We spent summers together at camp enjoying life with others at the "Round Table". We laughed and cried, drank and smoked. He was always there when I needed him. Perhaps we'll meet again some day.

Vaya conDios my friend...

“ Mark O, words can't even to begin to express my sadness and sorrow over losing you. For many, many years we were always side by side. Remember how people thought we were twins! I wish we had the chance to see each other again but it seems time ran out. I love you so much Mark, I always have and I always will. I'll carry you in my heart until we meet again. Rest peacefully my big brother as the angels surround you. XO forever and a day ❤️
