“ Dear Roger & Kids,
I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your sweetheart and mom. She was one of the most beautiful people I have met in my teaching career. Her total dedication to her classroom, family and friends was awe inspiring. I wrote this phrase a long time ago...The breath of God now caresses her...for her, there is no more night, no more pain, no more suffering. Beth basks in the warm, heavenly glow of her loving Creator. I embrace each one of you in your pain. I pray for strength and consolation in your sadness.

“ Dear Roger, Nathan and Preston, my heart aches for each of you at this tremendous lost you are enduring. Beth was, is and always will be a 'super' dear sister friend to me. From our days at Notre Dame College onto a couple of years in Texas, both doing what we loved best, teaching, and back 'home' where Beth met the 'love' of her life, married, raised a family, continuing teaching in the classroom and out. Her zeal for God and for life became contagious to all who had the pleasure of 'knowing' Beth. I was granted such a blessing. A great void has grown within my heart/my soul, knowing Beth and I no longer share this 'gift of life'. True to the old song 'Thank you for being a friend', Beth was that friend. You are deeply missed, my friend! Love you bunches of bunches.
