

Mary-Gail DaCosta

September 14, 1954 - November 19, 2025

Mary-Gail DaCosta, 71, of Hudson, NH, passed away peacefully on November 19, 2025, at Mass General Hospital.

Mary-Gail was born in Lowell, MA, on September 14, 1954. She graduated from Keith Hall and went on to attend Northern Essex and St. John's Nursing School. She worked as a nurse at Saints Memorial Medical Center and later furthered her education, earning both her BSN and MBA from Rivier University.

She loved vacationing with her family, especially the island of St. Maarten, gardening, doing puzzles, bird watching, and was a voracious reader.

Mary-Gail is survived by her mother, Barbara Ryan; her beloved husband of 46 years, Anthony (Tony) DaCosta; and her children, Erica DaCosta her husband Brian Harper and Stephanie Naylor her husband Ken Naylor. She is also survived by her grandchildren—Lilly, Hayden, MacKenzie, and Sloane—along with loving nieces, nephews, and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her father, John Ryan, and her brother, Kenneth Ryan

Friends and family are invited to attend visitation hours at Dumont-Sullivan

*Tony and family.
So sorry to hear of Mary Gail's passing. She was a wonderful person and a great RN.
Please accept my sympathies. Hopefully, I can reach out with you. At some point in the future and have a coffee. I've been up in Hudson for 10 year*

“ To You Tony (Abba) I am very sorry for your loss. Your wife had to be a Great of a Person as you were Tony. I never did get to meet her, but I remember you Abba from O'Donnell's Park where you and I hung around for years. Again, I am very sorry for you loss, and The Lord took her way too soon from you. I am not able to make it, as I now live by Lake George, and I own a restaurant with my wife Racheal call The Pie House.

“ Dear Family of Mary Gail,
Please accept my most sincere condolences in the loss of your beloved daughter, wife, mother and grandmother.
I went to Keith Hall with Mary Gail. Even after a half of a century I can hear her easy laugh.
I admired her greatly. Beautiful and so very smart.
Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon her

*Tony and family and Aunt Bobbi,
Our condolences to all of you in this time of sadness. As cousins we have always lived at great distances, but we recall a long ago brief residence in Lowell and visiting with our cousins, aunts & uncles.
Godspeed to you, Mary Gail. May you rest in peace, and may all who loved you take solace in their memories of you.*
