“ Aunt Mary Lou, so often thought of in many good ways. Sad to hear, I ALWAYS loved listening to her talk to me while I was growing up. Here's a great memory. 1962ish, I was riding around on my tricycle, and fell of and busted my arm (the first time of many!) Well as a kid, it hurt!! My mom walked us down the street to Aunt Mary Lous' house, as they lived very close, and she comforted me and took care of me until I went to the doctor? (I don't recall!) Or perhaps she put the cast on, hmm I do not remember that part. Anyway, I loved her very much and remember she had a great sense of humor. Both her and Uncle Bob!
Sincerest condolences and happiest memories.
