“ You lived an ocean away from me Michael, but that never stopped you from showing all the love and care that your heart of gold could share with me. Since we started talking, about half a year ago, you tried to brighten up my days, make each of them special, and you never failed at that. Your intelligence, your wit, your sense of humor, your charm and your beautiful soul can never be replaced in my heart. You are the most amazing person I have ever met and if I could trade my life and health for yours, I would do so without hesitating. I truly wish i could have done more for you while you were still here with me...

Wherever you are now, we will meet again one day, my Guardian Angel. I will carry you in my heart until then - and I will always love you.

Your Star

“ Most of my memories are from when you were a little boy before you started your fight with diabetes. Raccicon, fishing @ Pilling’s Pond, summer vacations @ Auntie Ruth’s cottage, daily neighborhood wiffle ball games in the backyard. Friendly’s mint chocolate ice cream. The phone calls from Mrs. Carpenter asking you to come over to make all the puzzles that the afternoon Pixie preschool class hadn’t put back together!

I will also always remember your love of animals, particularly your love of your cats. We had them growing up and you continued that tradition when you moved out on your own: Mittens, Martin & Trooper. But we can’t forget Punky, just because he was a ferret! Your love of baseball and the RED SOX is one of the strongest memories. How excited you would be to go to the games at Fenway, trading baseball cards with me and your friends. It is the only sport I know anything about because of these experiences with you.

I have fond memories of the times you spent with Stephanie. How you would come in and get down on your hands and knees and play anything she wanted to play! She would light up when she saw you and I know you felt the same.

My most recent memory is of the phone call we had a few weeks ago. You were Happy and it was so nice to hear.

One of the greatest gifts you ever gave was just a few days before your fight ended. That was the phone call to Gram on her 93rd birthday. She cherished you, and that call made her birthday so special!

Rest in Peace my brother, it has been a long hard fight for you.

Even though you are no longer a phone call away please know you were loved and will be missed by many people.

You are always in my heart, Love you

Your sister, Laurie
