“ My dearest mom,

Words are not enough to say how much you will be missed. I have been very lucky to spend the time I have with you and dad. I am not going to know what to do with my self. I will visit you and dad in a better place as often as I can.

“ Mom,

Being with you these last few months meant the world to me, I so enjoyed every minute of them. I only wish I could have had more.

I have to say Mom, that it felt so great to take care of a women that gave so much to others and expected nothing in return. I thank you for the opporutuity to give something back.

Mom, the hard part was to let you go and hand you over to God, to become one of God angels, for you Mom there could be nothing less.

I know you're safe now with no more pain, I also know your now watching over all of us.

Mom may you rest in peace now. You will always be in my heart. My hero

Love your daughter, Donna Miller##imported-begin##Donna Miller##imported-end##

“ You were the kindest and most gentle person I have ever known. I miss you and I will always remember your laughter and smile. You used to say that you would sing to me as a baby and that always brought a smile to my face. I know that we will be together again one day; you will be my angle, my brightest star. Love you always, Rosemarie.##imported-begin##Rosemarie Avola##imported-end##
