

Mick Mawn

May 26, 1937 - March 10, 2012

Mick Mawn, 74 of Hudson, passed away peacefully and gracefully, Saturday March 10, 2012 in Nashua surrounded by his loving family.

He was born May 26, 1937 in Mattapoisett, MA son of the late Ernest and Doris (Woodward) Mawn. He was also predeceased by his wife, Patricia (Cody) Mawn, his high school sweetheart, who he married on September 27, 1958.

Mick was raised in Dorchester, MA and graduated Dorchester High School in 1954. Following graduation, he enlisted in the Navy and proudly served as a Communications Technican within the Naval Security Group, he retired as Chief Petty Officer in June 1974. In those 20 years, he served at multiple duty stations including Morocco, California, Maryland, Puerto Rico and Virginia. His sea duty included tours on the USS Salem, USS North Hampton, USS Corporal, USS FD Roosevelt, and USS America.

Following his honorable discharge he was employed as a Security Manager at Sanders Assoc. / BAE Systems, until his retirement in 2002. During this time, Mick received his B.S. in Business Management from NH College and an MBA from Hesser College.

Mick had a "Irish" sense of humor and found ways to charm all who had the pleasure of his company. He was a talented artist who enjoyed doodling, cartooning, painting pumpkins for his grandchildren and spending time with his family. Mick also found great enjoyment in his Friday morning breakfasts at Suzie's Diner with the ROMEO'S.

His loving family includes two sons Michael Mawn and his wife Christine of Tewksbury, MA, Kevin Mawn and his wife Denise of Nashua, a daughter Kathleen Cote and her husband Joey of Goffstown, NH, seven grandchildren Anne, Catherine, Cody, Connor, Colleen, Devin and Ryan. His sister Doris Melvin of California, and numerous cousins, nephews and nieces. As well as Mick's beloved dog, Maggie.

Happy St. Patrick's Day, Dad & Safe Home, Pop.

All visitation services will be private. A burial in the NH State Veteran Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family encourages donations be made in Mick's loving memory to the Oncology Dept., St. Joseph Hospital, 172 Kinsley St., Nashua, NH 03060.

“ Dear Kathi and family..just read of you Dads passing in this mornings paper..I am very sad you lost him. The girls at work said "hey , you didn't hear from Pats husband this St Pats day?" now I know why. I am so very sorry..I'll miss him and his little stories he sent me on e-mail and knowing he's here. Your parents meant so much to me...I could go on and on about having them in my life but you know they did . Take care and Gods blessings..Kathy Humes##imported-begin##Kathy Humes##imported-end##

“ Mick was a former shipmate and friend. I had the pleasure of serving with him at Northwest, Chesapeake VA during the early 1970's. I always considered him a gentleman. Mick had a great sense of humor and was one heck of a cartoonist. He gave laughter to many. I wish him a fair wind and a following sea. This St.Patrick's Day I'll have a Guinness and shepherd's pie and send good thoughts upward and eastward.

“ Michael, Kevin, Kathie & families

Just to let you know what great friends your Dad & Mom were to us, in our time of need. So proud to have met them through our Collectable houses. Many great times and trips. Your Dad has given me a lot of advise and courage over the last year, and will never be forgotten. A great help and friend to a lot of people

“ *To Mick's Family,
Your dad & mom were both such wonderful, fun, caring & special friends to my sister & brother-in-law (Helen and Don Murphy) & your dad's encouragement throughout my son's deployment meant the world to us.
From one Irish family to another, may the journey for your dad be sweet & the road etched in green & gold!
God Bless,

“ *I worked with your Dad at Sanders for a number of years. We shared some common ground, in that we were both retired Navy CT's. In addition to being an outstanding professional, he was a lot of fun and I was proud to have known him. We in the Naval Cryptologic Veterans Association - New England Chapter will miss him. My deepest sympathies are with your family. Fair Winds and Following Seas, Mick.
