“ My Dad's Eulogy.

I love you

Your daughter, Renee

April 16, 2017

As I look into this room, I see both smile and tears, although there have been many tears of sadness in the last few days since we lost my father, they are not tears of sadness as you sit here and remember; they are tears of joy intermingled with nostalgic smiles, for the way this man left a permanent mark on our mind, heart, and souls.

I see my father's grandchildren: Matthew, Teddy, Hanna, Peter, and Tory.

Matt-His first grandson, you were fortunate enough to live with Papou as a young boy. He loved you, Matt.

Teddy-Papou always had Bazooka gum ready for you and your friends at your games and you will proudly carry on the Douris name.

Hanna-His first granddaughter. So much like your father. You are strong and brave.

Peter-Papou was always astonished by your bravery and uniqueness.

Tory- His youngest grandchild. Quiet and loving just like her Grandpa.

I see my brother's and myself remembering my Dad:

Nick Jr.- The only person I know that could put that beautiful smile on Dad's face while he was enduring intolerable pain. He idolized you, Nick.

Philip and myself- Dad chose to love us unconditionally. Phil was his rebel and I was (in his words) "beautiful daughter."

To my Uncle Jimmie- Your friendship was like no other. He thought of you like a brother. You caring for Dad for the last 18 months, my family could never repay you for. Thank you.

My Dad's friends have their own private memories of him-not as a father, but as a fun-loving guy who enjoyed the beach, Vegas, Foxwoods, dancing and family gatherings.

And for my mother...my mother has the most treasured memories of any of us, but they belong to her alone. None of us knew or loved or treasured my Dad as she did and, so today, we give you your memories to hold in the privacy of your heart, Mom. Be selfish and keep them for you alone.

TINSEL-as everyone knows is my parent's cat. My Dad loved and treasured every moment with him.

I do know that somewhere, in the vastness at whatever lies beyond, my Dad is smiling down at us and saying, "I am good, I'm fine" and giving us a thumbs up.

Dad's Eulogy: I love you. April 16, 2016. Love always your Daughter, Renee

As I sit in the living room with a cup of coffee. I need to keep reminding myself you are no longer here with us. This last month we spent with you has been comforting. Mum and I knowing in your last days, you were home, where you wanted to be. You would always express to me how much you love me and Peter. Looking at me with smile and hugging me, comforted me to know I have my own place with you. Your daughter.
