“ Happy thanksgiving❤️ Noella is now 3+ years old. She carries the crazy demeanor of her Uncle Nick. Nala is doing well, she manages to get along with a rescue golden retriever we've had for a year and a half, they are best friends. Cartman is still the weirdest, personality filled cat I've ever met. & your ferret is Noella's "baby". Everyone is ok here, we miss you and love you always. Some days, don't know how we get through it, but with the strength and love you send us through heaven, that's what gets us through it. Keep sending us signs, visit us in our dreams. 😊

“ Coming up on almost two years of you being gone.. I really cannot believe it. I just want you to come home, life without you is so different. It's dull. An emotional roller coaster. Why did you think it would be otherwise? I'll never get used to you being gone but I'm still "gonna send it". I love you. Always. You know that. Xoxo

“ To the family of Nicholas I send my prayers and condolences. It is a difficult time when losing a loved one especially at such a young age. The Holy Scriptures can be very comforting at these hard times. Perhaps you also find this to be comforting. The account at John chapter 11 is most reassuring because it described the loss that our Lord Jesus experienced with his good friend Lazarus. There Jesus first shed tears and explained what had happened to his friend that had fallen into sleep but then the hope we can have for our loved ones when Jesus resurrected Lazarus. I pray this can bring some relief to your sorrow. Once again my deepest sympathies.

“ Growing up, I honestly didn't really have a lot of people I could call a "friend". You were one of the funniest, whole-hearted people I knew, and I wish we could have actually hung out together after you moved away from Laconia like we had planned. I love you brotha, and I know you are now looking down on us. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Rest In Peace

“ My heart brakes for Jenn, Steven, Nichole, Cameron, Kathie, and everyone. My granddaughter is Lauren Tanguay that is having a difficult time with Nick's death. I know Nick is in peace and back to where he came from..God...where he can run free in green pastures perhaps with puppies that play with him near beautiful lakes that he is us to. I know his new world in heaven has beautiful colors not on our pallet & there is only love and he is circled by a beautiful light that is forever love & peace. Go to the eternal flame that never dies ....and be the child of God you have always been. Love in Christ,
