“ To Nikki's family, I am so sorry to have missed everything.....we were hit hard by Hurricane Sandy and have no phones, electricity or internet. This is the first moment I have been able to reach out to anyone since Monday's storm. I managed to get out on my iPhone.....finally. My heart is aching at losing my beloved friend Nikki. I feel so isolated from all of you and am longing to talk to you. As soon as we have some services back I will call. I trust everything went well today. YOU have all been on my mind all this week. With love,
Maryanne
