“ I was so lucky to have been this man's son. He truly understood what it took to be a father. He educated me in a way that I can never thank him enough, I'm still learning from him this day.....Since his retirement there wasn't a day that would go by that I wouldn't talk to my dad or stop by and see him. He truly was my BEST FRIEND! You will be missed by all who knew you, but none more than me !!!! RIP my sweet ANGEL ,

He treated my mother like a queen! I never saw them have a disagreement! He was truly the gentlemen, gentlemen. He spent 61 plus years with this beautiful lady! Their love was like a story book! My father came from a family of 4 and my mother a family of 13. Everything was always about family and he was always there for my mom and our extended family.....Even though I'm an only child my parents, father instilled in me those family values!

So on Friday when we have our family, friends together to put my dad to rest, this will be a great CELEBRATION OF LIFE!!!!

*Love you Dad,
Your forever loving son, Russ*

My husband, Peter I attended the service for my uncle today. As a little girl growing up in the extended Gagnon family. I always thought that my aunt and uncle were the handsomest couple and to this day I still do. They were a loving couple and raised a great son.

They have wonderful memories of a man who was indeed a wonderful husband, Dad, and friend to many.

Rest In Peace.
