

Pantelis "Pete" Patistas

September 9, 1966 - December 18, 2020

Pantelis "Pete" Patistas, 54, of Hudson, NH, died Friday, December 18, 2020 in Burlington, MA following a brief illness.

He was born September 9, 1966 in Manchester, NH, son of Pantelis, Sr. and Beverly Patistas of Manchester, NH.

Pete is survived by his Wife of 23 yr, Anne Patistas of Hudson as well as his son, Pantelis "Peter" Patistas IV of Hudson. Also, his sisters, Debbie Orcutt and her husband Bill of Burlington, VT, Brenda Thorpe and her husband Ken of Manchester, as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews; who will all miss him very much. Pete was predeceased by a sister, Joanne "JoJo" Patistas.

Pete grew up in Manchester NH, graduated and from Central High School. He was employed as an auto body technician for 30+yrs. Most recently he worked at Savers where he loved interacting with the customers and fellow employees. Pete was an avid Bowler, that is how he met Anne. He loved to travel, eat out and socialize at his local haunts! Pete was a no nonsense guy, saying what he thought; like it or not. He was fiercely loyal to his family and friends. His smile, if you got to see it, was contagious.

Pete will be remembered and missed by many, many people.
