

Pascal de Jongh

May 26, 1969 - December 26, 2014

Pascal de Jongh, 45, died unexpectedly Friday, December 26, 2014 at his home in Nashua, NH.

Pascal was the beloved husband of Sue (Boyle) de Jongh for almost 18 years, having moved from Holland to be with her in the US. He was an amazing person, a very talented photographer and computer geek, he loved to cook and play the guitar, and he spoiled his wife and their cats rotten. He was predeceased by his parents Geoffrey de Jongh and Marylou (Biemans) de Jongh. He is survived by his wife, his sister Natasha Weeland-de Jongh and her husband Marco Weeland of Lage Zwaluwe NL, Ankie (Biemans) Bos of Muiden NL, Colin, Sheri, Joel and Katie de Jongh of Brixham UK, Peta, Dave, Asia and Celeste Hamdon of Edmonton Alberta Canada, Tommy and Patty Skouras and Aleka Skouras-Eisentraut of Saint Helena California.

He was born May 26, 1969 in the UK then moved to Holland as an infant. He grew up with his younger sister Natasha and their parents in Holland. After falling in love, Pascal married Sue in Arizona in 1996, after which they lived in Southern California, Holland, Manchester NH and finally Nashua NH. Pascal will be deeply missed.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Animal Rescue League of NH (<http://www.rescueleague.org/>), or any charity of your choice.

“ Dear Natasha and Sue, I remember pascal as the Big Brother of Natasha. He was a kind spirit. We were like 5 or 7 yeas old when I met him. He had the funniest idea's for games we could play. We hade so much fun. But then they moved away, but his games stayed.

It saddens me allot to hear he is gone. My sincerest condolences, may 1 find comfort in the memories he has created with you.

“ Dear Natasha, Sue and all who miss Pascal deeply. Pascal passed away very very suddenly .
Much too young. No opportunity to say goodbye, to say how much you love him and to say how much he meant to you in your lives and to thank him for everything.
Pascal will live on in our memories and in our hearts. So that Pascal is always there.
Our sincere condolences to you Natasha and Sue and the rest of the family.
We remember Pascal with a smile on our face. He was nice, funny, one of a kind.

“ Dear Natasha, dear Sue,
I know Pascal from many years ago, when we were kids in Oss. I remember a funny moment, us dancing..
yes, Pascal, Natasha, my brother Yuri and me.. outside, in our 'yard', and your mother was very, very, very amazed, that we ALL were doing sort of a rainedance..
I also remember our big imagination.. big stories we invented..
When both of us moved, the contact was lost.. until a year (or so) ago, we found each other on FaceBook again.
It was really nice to hear from you again, and I loved the way how you 'talked' about Sue and Natasha, so full of love, and very proud.
I am very sad that you passed away..
But like Natasha said.. I think you were so happy to be with your 2 favorite ladies to celebrate christmas together..
Natasha and Sue, I am so sorry for your loss..
liefs, Sas

“ Lieve Scal,

*Wat een vreselijk lot dat ons treft dat je ons hebt verlaten. Ik ben zo blij dat ik na al die jaren een paar dagen met je heb kunnen doorbrengen en je heb kunnen vasthouden. Wat hebben we het gezellig gehad met koken, tv kijken, bijkletsen en foto's kijken. Ik ben blij dat je een fijne kerst hebt gehad en dat je nog hebt kunnen genieten van de gevulde speculaas. Ik heb Bunny meegenomen naar huis. Ik heb van je gedroomd vannacht; het was allemaal een geintje en je leeft gewoon nog.
Ik hou zo vreselijk veel van je; deze wond gaat nooit meer dicht.*

“ Ik ben geschokt. We hebben zo'n mooie tijd gehad in Oss. Samen zo veel geluisterd naar The Beatles en de klassieke muziek van je vader. Zo veel gespeeld met de Atari en fietstochten gemaakt door Oss. En een geweldige Pascal Pieter tour van Waterloo naar new york met een tussenstop bij Sue.
My sincere condolences to you Sue and Natasha. As Soon As i am recovered from surgery i Will send my gift for pascal's memory. I am devastated by this enormous tragedy. Pieter.

*Sue & Natasha,
The UK de Jongh's and Hamdon's have donated to the NH Animal Rescue League in Pascal's name. We hope this would be what he would have wanted. We only wish that we could have known him better. He should not have been taken so young. Wishing you both find strength at this very difficult time.*
