Patty will be remembered as a strong and loving person. She could make us laugh and remind us of how to be righteous . I remember being proud and excited to sit with her at our sons' games those years back. Always the ever ferocious protective mother guarding her family and friends with passion and love. Her family is blessed to have had her guidance and love. Her friends lost an angel God took back now to join in a pain free world, reunited with her son. I wish happy everlasting memories and strength for her family.

“I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.

– John 11:25-26

Patty, I know where you are... Thank you for sharing your love and light with me in this world. I will miss you greatly here on earth but I know I will see you again someday. Love you very much sweetheart. I would like to give my condolences to her husband John who loved and spend every precious moment by his wife's side. God is watching and he knows the depth of your pain, he will reward you for that love. My love and prayers to the entire family during this sad time. God bless all of you.

“ To "Mrs.G",
I am praying for your Peace and Calmness. I am thinking of you and your family during this loss. You were my Nanny to my most cherished possession, my 7 children. I always think fondly of your guidance, wisdom and patience you expressed in the way you loved my children. I always bragged about having the world's best "Nanny" for my children. I could not have found a more perfect person to watch over my family.
My condolences to the family.

“ I grew up with Patty and her sisters in Cambridge, Mass. She was a lifelong friend who I just can't believe is gone. She was a warrior who fought a valiant fight waiting for a new liver. Im asking everyone who reads this to become an organ donor for people like Patty. I loved you Patty and my heart is broken along with your children, your devoted husband John, your sisters, and your parents. Rest in Peace with your beloved son Tony. Leslie

“ Frank, and the entire Girginis family,

We are so saddened with the news of Pat's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. Her time with you may seem very short and frankly, extremely unfair. Know that when you look, talk and comfort each other, you will always continue to feel her love since it will always be alive and shine within all of your kind and generous hearts.

All our love - Don, Kerry and Meagan Morelli
