“ To the family of Patricia Michaud,

We are so sorry for the recent loss that your family has experienced.

And since Patricia was predeceased by many other family members we know this adds more weight to the sadness that you're experiencing. Our hearts go out to you.

It is very important for us to know that God never wanted us to experience death. In fact the Bible calls it an enemy. At 1 Corinthians 15: 25,26 it says:

"For he must rule as king until God has put all enemies under his feet. And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."

The Bible shows that God through his son really wants to and will succeed in conquering the enemy death. As Revelation 21 :4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

We really hope these thoughts will be comforting to you as you deal with your grief.

Please accept our sincere sympathies at this time.

Warm Regards,

John and Samantha King

“ We always called Pat ,, Patti Cake... it had such a good sound to it.
She made everyone smiled, always bringing people up and looking the best in them. Her sister Sherry everytime I called the house number and Sherry would pick up thinking it was Pat on the line. She has such a distinctive voice , Sherry always got me fooled. She sounded just like Pat. We love you Pat and deeply miss your presence here with us , You and Chantal took the time to go out to eat with Adam to have a good time and enjoying the company. I wish we could of done more , but in God's plan he always knows BEST! It is only a goodbye for now Pat. Your daughter Chantal will miss your presence. You did things together as mother and daughter would do , it was very visible the love you both had for each other and got each others back.
Sleep well Pat.. someday we all meet again in our Heavenly Home with the Father.
