“ To the family of Paul I send my condolences. No matter when and how we loss a loved one there is always pain that comes to the survivors. I often find comfort from the holy scriptures and perhaps you do also. Jesus while on earth proved he had the power to heal but also to resurrect a loved one in his friend Lazarus. In the bible at John chapter 11 this account may give you as it does me a measure of comfort. There not only does Jesus himself shed tears but he describes the passing of his friend as being in a deep sleep that he is going to awaken him. Soon Jesus will do this for all our loved ones that have passed. once again my deepest sympathies on your loss

“ *From a Classmate:
During those great years at Nashua High culminating at graduation in 1956 I knew Paul and Patricia both as warm and friendly people.
Both had terrific smiles and very good personalities .*

Pat, I wish you the best and you have my sincerest sympathy in this time of loss.

Paul, rest in peace.

Sincerely
