“ Chris, Amanda, and Skyla: *I wish you peace with the passing of Paul. Know that he is at peace also. After 40 years, I can still say Paul was a beautiful man-tough as nails-strong as an ox, and a smile that could take your cares away. Let your wonderful memories take away the pain that you have in your heart. We will all miss him. Lean on your family and friends. And remember he will "NEVER BE GONE HE IS JUST AWAY". I love you. “ *It will be the little things that you will remember,
the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem
hard right now,
it will be the memories
of these little things
that help bring the smiles
back again.*

*May God bless you
as friends comfort you,
faith will uphold you,
and loving memories
will help you smile again.*

“ when I first met Paul at Bell Atlantic he was sitting in the break room reading the paper, not saying much, quiet compared to the crew...at first. Once I got to know him he was quite the opposite. paul enjoyed laughter, pranks, golf, fishing and beer with the guys. His coworkers respected him and regarded his opinion as a union employee and later as a manager with verizon.the easy smile and laughing eyes were always present . he had a no-stress attitude in a high stress atmosphere. his presence will be terribly missed. Carol , Amanda, Skyla, Michael ,Majorie and the rest of Pauls' family , I am so sorry for your loss and ours also. Remember all the great happy times thats what I plan on thinking about.##imported-begin##thom fraser##imported-end##

“ Dad,

I am shocked and deeply saddened by your passing. I have many emotions that I am trying to deal with, but the most obvious is one of deep regret. Regret that I was not part of your life in later years. Regret that I didn't reach out to you more. Regret that I was never able to express to you what you really meant to me. You are my father, and there is so much about me that reminds me of that.

I just want you to know that part of you is living on through me. The things that you introduced me to are some of the favorite parts of my life now. From my lifelong interest in classic cars, right down to the type of music that I still enjoy today. These are the things that helped shape me as a person and I am forever grateful to you for that.

I will be the first to admit that I think we shared a common trait of stubbornness. It did not define us, but I think it kept us apart. I wish I had the strength to change that when I had the opportunity to. Instead, I will never get that chance.

I choose now to go back to the time that we spent together and cherish those memories. The car shows. The summer trips to Lake Winnepesaukee. The endless games of basketball in your driveway, fishing trips, and so on. When I took your grandson Zachary to a vintage car show over the summer, with the 60's music blaring in the background, the first thing I thought of was you, and the times when we used to do the same things. These are the moments I will choose to remember. Not the regret that I feel in my heart.

We will all miss you. I love you.##imported-begin##Michael##imported-end##

I am sad that he is not here physically, but know that spiritually he is with Carol, Amanda and Skyla, who he loves so much! His beautiful granddaughter, Skyla, will hear many stories of her Grampy and will know what a good person he was!##imported-begin##George Maciulewicz##imported-end##

“ I will always remeber Paul as a reliable, fair and honorable man to work with. I really enjoyed riding in his big Ford truck reviewing jobs I had written and fixing my mistakes. He was a great friend and breakfast companion. I am sadden that he was taken way before his time. Another veteran that came home...to give his life for his country.

“ my daddy may have been a man of very few words, but he had a heart of gold. he never turned his back on anyone an was always there for me the second i needed him. he may have thought i didnt understand him but i think i understood him better then anyone. i treasure every moment and every memory i have ever had with him because his smile could ease your pain and his eyes were sincere. i would give anything for one more hug or one more sunday morning drive, but i know he will forever be my angel and continue to watch over me an my baby girl. -- daddy you were the strongest person i have ever met in my life and i will miss you every second of everyday but your spirit will live on in my heart. “ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived! And that your life gave us such wonderful memories to keep. I will always love and remember my brother, Paul. Love, Christine##imported-begin##Christine##imported-end##
