“ To the family my deepest condolences on your loss. It is a time of difficulty for the survivors who have lost a loved one. I often find and perhaps you do also comfort from the Holy Scriptures. One such encouraging account is found at John chapter 11 when Jesus lost his good friend Lazarus in death. There Jesus gave us a glimpse into the future resurrection hope by doing this for his friend showing the power he had receive from his father in heaven. Jesus also wept on this occasion showing that losing someone is not the experience that God wants anybody to experience. Once again my prayers and thoughts at with the family at this difficult time.

“ I worked with Peter at Polaroid, and car pooled with him for a few years. He and his wife. Carol were good friends. I lost touch with him after his wife passed away. I think he moved to Derry, but not sure where or when. He liked his cars, and liked to reload ammo and was a member of Nashua Fish and Game club.

“ Peter,
Thank you for all the times you took my trash barrel off the street. Also for helping out in the Co-op collecting snow poles. Although you could not do much, every little thing helps. Rest in peace.
