

Ray Dubord

November 16, 1938 - July 18, 2020

Raynald Dubord, 81, passed away peacefully Saturday, July 18th, 2020 after a long illness. Ray is the loving husband of Ginette (Laurendeau) Dubord with whom he spent 55 years of marriage.

Ray was born in La Guadeloupe, Quebec, Canada to the late Gedeon and Florence (Ferland) Dubord. He was a devout Catholic and communicant of St. John the Evangelist Church in Hudson, NH.

Ray will always be remembered for his incredible work ethic, wicked sense of humor, and his infectious laugh. When he smiled there was a twinkle in his eye that showed his genuine spirit and love of life. Ray was a prankster who was down to earth with a tremendous heart and generous, giving nature. His favorite activity was going to the beach with Ginette to sit and read or just people watch. Ray loved to be outdoors and would bring his family to the White Mountains whenever possible.

Ray's intelligence went far beyond his formal schooling. A proud member of the Carpenter's Union for over thirty years, Ray's contributions can be found in many of the most famous buildings in Boston, including the Prudential Center, Mass General, and the John Hancock Tower. Ray was able to pass his trade, talents, and work ethic to his son Robert. Ray looked forward to time with his children, whether it was working side by side with Robert, watching

Jimmy ski, or teaching his daughter Michele about history and political science. Ray inspired each of his children to follow their dreams, seek an education, and to always keep laughing. But mostly, he taught them to not ever take away someone's livelihood, to always show up, and to never burn bridges because you never know when you may have to cross them again.

Ray spent his final years happily at Bedford Hills Center, where his laughter and jokes would ring down the halls. He loved having his Dunkin' Donuts Iced Coffee and especially Chinese food and ice cream. The family would like to extend their utmost thanks for the loving care Ray received from the Bedford Hills staff including Renee, Erica, Michelle, Anissa, and Stephanie.

In addition to his wife Ginette, he is survived by his three children, Robert Dubord of Hudson, NH, Michele McGovern and her husband Michael of Manchester, NH, and Jimmy Dubord and his wife Kristen of Nashua, NH. Ray is also most proud of his beautiful granddaughter Danielle McGovern. He is also survived by his two sisters, Huguette Dubord and Claudette Dubord, both of Montreal Canada, sister in law Ginette Dubord of Hudson, his brother in law Gaston Gosselin also of Hudson, as well as many other sisters and brothers in law, nieces and nephews. Ray is predeceased by his brother Marcel Dubord and sister Raymonde Gosselin both of Hudson.

Visitation will be held on Thursday, July 23rd from 5-7pm at the Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home, 50 Ferry St., Hudson with a funeral service being held the following morning, Friday, July 24th to begin at 10am in the Funeral Home. Public may arrive beginning at 9:30am. A limited number of guests will be allowed inside the funeral home to visit with the family for a limited amount of time on a rotating basis. All guests are asked to please wear a mask or facial covering. For those who are unable to attend due to Co-Vid, the family will be holding a full memorial service to be followed by a party in celebration of Ray's life to be announced at a later date.

“ *In the tapestry of life, each thread a soul,
Ray Dubord walked among us, making hearts whole.
From Market Basket greetings to warm, knowing smiles,
His presence lit our paths, radiating kindness for miles.*

*Though the clock has ticked and the years have flowed,
His spirit lives on, in the love he bestowed.
For over a decade, we've shared this space,
Every face holds a story, a moment, a trace.*

*In memories, he lingers, a beacon of light,
Guiding us gently through the shadows of night.
He taught us to cherish each laugh, every tear,
To embrace all the moments, to hold loved ones near.*

*To the family he cherished, take heart, be strong,
In every beat of your hearts, he still hums along.
For love is not lost; it only transforms,
Through the trials we face, his spirit still warms.*

*Let the echoes of laughter resonate deep,
In the bonds that you share and the memories you keep.
Though he walks not beside you, he's never apart,
He remains in the fabric, woven into your heart.*

*So rise, my dear friends, with courage anew,
In honor of Ray, let your dreams all break through.
For he believed in your strength, your grace, your fight,
And in this shared journey, let his love be your light.*

*As you gather your strength and stand side by side,
Remember, he's watching, a source of great pride.
Embrace one another, share stories, and sing,
For life flows onward; it's a wondrous thing.*

In every sunset, in the stars shining bright,

*Ray's spirit surrounds you, a comforting sight.
So lift up your hearts, let compassion emerge,
And walk on with courage; let the memories surge.*

*Here's to celebrating a life that inspired,
To a legacy of love that will never expire.
Keep moving forward, let his spirit be your guide,
For in the love you carry, he will always abide.*

*With heartfelt remembrance,
James Jimmy Gedeon*

“ *Chère Ginette,
Dear Robert,
Dear Michele, Mike and Danielle
Dear Jimmy and Kristen,*

Just wanted to let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers in a special way as we remember Raynald. Unfortunately, I will not be able to join you as you celebrate his life, but since Friday and Saturday, when I learned he was in his last moments, I turned to God to give thanks for his life.

I will always remember a joyful man, discreet in his way, yet able to see the glimmer of hope in every situation. Whenever we met - and in a special way in the last few years - I had a special grace of meeting a man of faith, hope and love. And no doubt, throughout his life he wanted to grow in these values as he journeyed to the Father's house. Today, he can fully enjoy the grace of this love. As you share memories and celebrate Raynald's life, may you find peace, comfort and consolation. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

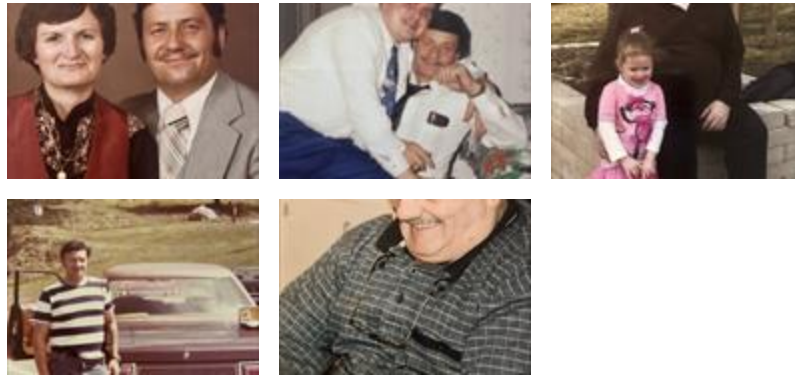

God bless!
