

Richard Cuff

May 24, 1967 - May 5, 2026

Richard F. Cuff, 58, of Manchester NH, formerly of Hudson, NH, passed away on Tuesday, May 5, 2026, at his home.

Rich was born on May 24, 1967, in Cleveland OH, son of the late Richard and Eileen (Drake) Cuff. He graduated from Alvirne High School, class of 1985.

Rich was a huge sports fan, especially baseball and football. He was an avid Red Sox fan and would attend games whenever he could. His love of the Sox was rivaled by his love of the LA Rams. He took immense joy at being the only Rams fan in the local New England region and he never wavered in his devotion even when the Pats were crushing all their competition.

Rich was also a big music fan who attended many live concerts over the years. He saw U2 the most times, but his new favorite artist, Jack White, was quickly gaining ground.

He had a fascination with Bensons Wild Animal Farm. Memories of his friends working there, and hopping the fence to hang out with them, were fond memories. To this day, he still enjoyed visiting the park and walking around the grounds occasionally.

He is survived by his son Jorden, whom he loved deeply, his sisters, Jennifer and Veronica, his two nephews, Matthew and David, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. He is also survived by several good friends that stuck by him and loved him, even when he could not love himself.

All services are private. In lieu of flowers the family encourages donations be made in Rich's loving memory to Hope for NH Recovery at www.recoverynh.org/donate

“ As Rich's godfather, we go back a long way.. So why this particular memory stands out over all these years, I'm not quite sure. It takes me back to when Rich was maybe 10 years old. There was a war in the mideast going on as there so often is. Rich and i were driving through sunny green fields in rural West Lebanon, Maine. Rich looked out at the peaceful scene and repeated a phrase that was heard on the news every evening, "Heavy fighting in West Lebanon" I laughed and noted he had a wry smile on his face. Even at his young age he had noted the extreme contrasts in the circumstances of life on this planet. I remember thinking, this kid has a sense of humor and he's really bright. And I knew he made the comment just to make me laugh. Little did I know how that moment in time might foretell the deep contrasts that would unfold for Rich in his life's journey. I imagine him now in a place that is sunny and green and forever peaceful. Rest in Peace, Rich “ Reading his obituary brought back childhood memories. Good memories. Playing TV tag, riding bikes, swimming, and listening to the music he was blasting in his room, when we lived on Ferry Street. May he rest in peace.

“ I have some great memories of Richard as a kid when we were neighbors. He would trade rock band pins with me to put on my jean jacket...those were the days. Honored to be caring for him and the family now. XO Leo

Rich was a big part of a small group of friends that came back into my life a year ago, This friend group pulled me out of very dark place, and got me to see my health problems as a blessing. I will be forever grateful to Rich for this, he was well loved by the group.
