“ *Dad . You took me to see the Beatles ,and laughed at how excited was to see them.
You taught me strength and bountiful loyalty towards others, and you made it known" we were not put on earth to Judge one another, but rather to look into another person's soul , and help them shine!
Dad you never said "no" when your kids needed help . You were always there for all your children ,and our beloved mother Emily.I remember you wrote in a valentine to Mom once " Love is Eternal" with your distinguished penmanship. And how fitting a quote to describe our feelings for you dear Dad.You were a man,of elegance,grace,compassion ,and empathy. Thank you for bringing me chocolate covered angel food cake when i got straight A's on my report card, and for teaching me to strive to be the best i can be in this life and beyond.There will never be another Richard Morrison on this earth as stately as you sweet Dad.And I am truly grateful to God that you were my father. Lucky, Lucky me. Rest in Peace Our Blessed Father. Love and kisses . Sam.*

“ I will miss you Grandpa Morrison. I will always remember our trip to Florida when I was just a small boy and you laughing when you got me to keep saying "Okeechobee here we come!" in the RV. I'll miss you sitting in your Den at the old Methuen house, watching the Celtics, watching you get so into the games. I missed talking with you at your wedding anniversary in Boston. I only wish I got to know you better. If not for you I wouldn't be here today and for that I am eternally grateful. I hope you and Dad have found each other on the other side. Rest now my Grandfather, your work is done. I love you.
