“ I am Bishop Walter Edyvean and I wish to extend my condolences to Rob's mother, his children and all who are mourning his death. Rob was an altar-boy for me when I was a young priest in Ipswich, MA. He spent two Christmas vacations with my mother and me in Europe, when I was in doctoral studies and he was studying in England. I always had the highest regard for Rob, and I shall be offering Mass for the repose of his soul and for the consolation of all who sense his loss and separation from him.
Sincerely, Bishop Edyvean

Hello Bishop Edyvean. I think I may have met you once in Ipswich when I was very young. Dad spoke VERY fondly of you many times over the years. I want to thank you for the kindness you shared with him and for your condolences and kind words. He would be touched to see this. Thank you so much.

“ Dear Rob... On behalf of all of us at The Home Depot in Keene, we want you to know how much you were loved and admired by all of us, especially those who had the pleasure of working with you in the Paint department. You set a standard in all that you did, which few have met and none have exceeded and for that we thank you. May you Rest In Peace. HD3488.
