“ My deepest condolences to the family on your loss. The pain of losing a member of your family is devastating. Perhaps at these times you may like me find comfort from the Holy Scriptures. Our Lord Jesus himself lost a dear friend named Lazarus it is found in John chapter 11. What is remarkable about this account is that it shows that Jesus felt pain at loss even though in the same chapter he performed a resurrection of his friend to help us today to see the power he received from his father and what he will do for our loved ones who have passed. I hope this gives you all a little measure of comfort. Once again my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.

“ *Michael,
So sorry to hear of your father's passing. Between the stories you shared while working at BAE and reading his obituary he sounds like a really great person. No matter how long we have our loved ones it never seems long enough. Raise a glass and toast your dad; the best man you've ever known. You and your family are in my thoughts.*

“ *I worked with Bob for many years and Lockheed Sanders for many years. He was truly a great friend and co worker. He had a wonderful sense of humor and was a committed to whatever tasks were put before him. We had many discussions on Boston Sports during those years.
