“ Uncle Bob always greeted you with a warm smile, a firm handshake, and a good joke. He was one of those extremely rare people that can have a great affect on you even if you only see them once a year or so. I will miss seeing him very much, but will have great memories always. Our condolences to the whole Wilke clan.

“ Bob, A truly great man, father, husband, grandfather, brother and a great friend for nearly 60 years to me.. Many great times were had with Bob, golfing, fishing, partying, and vacationing. We worked together on many projects at home and at Hampton. There was never a joke that Bob failed to pass on. Some of them even 7-8 times. He was an avid golfer and belonged to Rochester Country Club for 25 plus years and by the way neither one of us was able to master that course. Many great times were had and will never be forgotten. I shall miss him dearly. Farewell my great friend. Frank
