“ Hey baby brother, i normally dont write on these things because i always cry...just like i am doing now. But i just want to tell you that i love and miss you dearly....you were the baby and i feel you were taken too soon and suffered too much....but, we both know we shouldn't doubt or question God.....His reasons are not ours.....I guess your job was finished and it was God's time to take you home. I know now that you are at peace and suffer no more, and your spirit soars. I only regret that we could have not spent more time together while you were here...but our comfort is that when we are finally all together there is no time limit in heaven. I pray that God will grant Lorraine the peace and comfort that she needs. i know she misses you something awful. I will always cherish the time we had together from when we were young kids through adulthood and of course our days living in woburn. I will sorely miss you and wait for the day when i will see you, mommy and daddy again. I love you baby brother. Sis Lorraine###imported-begin###Lorraine Tuccero###imported-end###

“ Bob was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He had a smile that made your heart sing and I will miss seeing it. He always laughed at my silly jokes and always had a little zinger for me. It won't be the same at the family times without Bobby sitting with the "brother-in-law posse" keeping an eye on the party and especially the "sisters". I will miss him. All my love to Lorraine.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Bob's death. I worked for many years with Bob in the appraisal unit at Amica, Wellesley, MA office. Bob was very likeable and easy to work with. I never had any problems with assigning Bob work in his area when he worked and lived in Massachusetts. Bob was missed when he moved to the N.H. office. I am sure Bob will be missed by a lot of the people he worked with at Amica. Always Judy Glesner##imported-begin##Judy Glesner##imported-end##

I loved his kind and gentle heart and how he loved the teasing we would give him. God Bless you all during this time and the days ahead.. Hold dear the wonderful memories of such a great man. I'll miss hearing his voice and him calling me "kid", singing his theme song to him and talking to him about his travels and our shard love of Florida in the winter. Take care.
