“ I live in town and when I heard the lady in the pink house had passed away I felt horrible. I did not know Robin or her family but everyone knew the beautiful pink house and how beautiful it was always decorated. The pumpkins at Halloween were amazing and I loved to drive by just to see. I drove by Saturday night and I said to my husband that house and the family inside will never be the same. I know how you feel because we just lost our mother very suddenly 3 months ago. I know there are no words anyone can or will say to you that will ease the pain that you all are feeling right now. Heaven has another angel. I'm truly sorry for your families loss. Robin seemed to be a beautiful person inside and out. God Bless you and your family and my and my families deepest sympathy to you and your family. The Fiorentino Family

“ Robin had an incredible life force. Her energy took over a room as soon as she entered it. Maybe it was her beautiful smile or that infectious laugh, whatever it was, Robin was a force. The number of people who attended her wake last night are proof of this. I think Robin would have been so pleased to see the outpouring of love for her, but surprised at the same time that she affected so many lives. Robin was one of a kind, a true gem. I cannot imagine life without her. Love you, Rob.

Judging by the line outside the door and extending more than halfway to 102, and the cars parked on both sides of Ferry St from 102 to almost Buswell Street, Mrs. Mosnicka must have been an extraordinary woman. I did not know her, I am only a neighbor of the Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home and have never seen this many people there at one time. I realized that the person being remembered must have been someone who touched many lives and was extremely well-liked. In the almost 3 years I've lived here, this is the first time I have ever been prompted to come to this site to see for whom people were gathering. I truly wish I had known her...she seems like the kind of person who gave everything of herself to everyone in her life and everything that she did. I extend my deepest sympathies to her family, but I hope they take solace from the many people who have come to pay their respects today. I wanted to let her family know what things look like outside the funeral home, because while they are no doubt seeing and accepting condolences from a parade of people paying their respects, I wanted to give them a physical description of what's happening outside the funeral home this evening, in the hope that it will be of some comfort to them. It is no wonder God called her home. This world is too terrible for someone like her. Something tells me she was the kind of woman who deserves the comfort and grace, and freedom from pain and anguish that Heaven must offer its residents. "Flights of angels sing thee to thy rest."

“ I met Robin in the fall of 2008 as she was my son's third grade teacher. It was her first year back at Fisk and her enthusiasm for teaching was infectious. My son, Aidan, loved her dearly and enjoyed every minute spent in her classroom. Two years later my daughter, Mary, was lucky enough to be in her class as well. Despite the fact that Robin was in a considerable amount of physical pain that year her love of teaching and her dedication to her students never waned. Robin will live on in the memory of hundreds of her students who will remember square dancing, pumpkin carving and listening to her read "The Witches" . I understand her students this year had recently participated in a parade to wrap up their unit on Africa. The Fisk School Community will miss her greatly. I hope that it gives Marc, Alec, Carly, Amelia and the rest of Robin's family some consolation to know that a light as bright as Robin's and one that has touched so may people in such a positive way can never be extinguished.

I can see how much she will be missed by her family, her students and her friends, and everyone in the community, including myself that enjoyed just driving by her beautiful home to enjoy her pumpkin display.

“ Dear Mark, Alex, Carly and Amelia,
I am so sorry. I have so many vivid memories of our lives when you lived on Katie Lane. Robin pulling baby Alec in the wagon up to our house, then baby Carly while Alec drove his little motorized car. Carly's endless supply of bonnets and pretty dresses. Robin hosting my baby shower. She made Sarah's baby quilt, still in use today. She supplied me with everything I needed for Sarah from birth to about 3rd grade! Her record player and all those old records she played. The way she decorated for 4th of July. The Halloween when I wanted to recreate the witches supermarket and on the morning of, I couldn't figure out where to start. I called Robin and minutes later she was backing her SUV into the driveway to unload everything we needed and a few hours later, we were party ready. Her costumes; the most authentic witch costume ever, our first Booville Bash, her superhero costume, the rabbit, the beauty queen. I remember your family salsa making extravaganzas. She came into my life at a very pivotal time and brought our families together. She introduced me to her former students who became our dear babysitters. The last time we caught up was at the Booville Bash, she was radiant and showing me her pink Vespa. She saw ways to make a real difference and then just did it. She showed up for people. She played full out. We're sending you love.

“ My thoughts and prayers to Robin's family. Thirty years ago, while in college, we spent lots of time together as we worked during the summers at Hudson McDonalds. She was a few years ahead of me and during that period,I asked her for advice frequently. I still have the copy of "The Giving Tree" she gave me when I graduated from college. She wrote that I would become a great teacher in that book, long before I even considered it (five years later). I still remeber the "I told you so smirk" when I saw her a few years later. I feel blessed to have known her and wished we hadn't lost touch. There is one more angel in heaven who is continuing to watch over us.

“ I remember every summer growing up when Corinne and I would stay in your lake house for days at a time. We had so much fun swimming together, picking blueberries, and enjoying the family time we had together. We would make crafts when I was younger and even have my birthday parties planned by you at your house, which I am eternally grateful for. Thank you so much Aunt Robin for all that you've done for me and for your loving family. You will be missed by so many.

“ Our thoughts, prayers and deepest sympathy goes out to Mark, Alec, Carly and Amelia. Robin had a great heart, an amazing smile and shared her love for life in many ways. I'll never forget when I went to get Meaghan when she was staying over with Carly and the whole garage was all a buzz with children, pumpkins, wheel barrels of pumpkin guts and even a chicken... and there was Robin, carving away, making each pumpkin come alive! Robin, you will be missed!

“ My heart breaks as I think of "Miss Reilly's" passing. She lived the definition of "amazing" both as a person and as a teacher. I will forever remember her freckles, her smile, sharing peaches with her class after reading a Roald Dahl classic, the piano in her library, the live bunnies in the spring, being her buddy on a field trip, and so much more. The world has lost a wonderful presence but gained a beautiful guardian angel. My condolences to the Mosnicka and Fisk School families.

“ There are no words strong enough to properly express my feelings. Twenty four years ago you were my third grade teach at Fisk, Miss Reilly. You made every day exciting and fun. I couldn't wait to come to school and see what you had in store for us. That year was a difficult one for both you and me. My best friend (your student) became very ill. Although she didn't pass away until the summer after the school year ended, you were such a rock for me. You always knew when I was having a hard day and needed some time away from learning/school. Of course, you were there to hold my hand and give me support during her funeral too. You were wonderful. As the years passed we briefly lost touch. You married Mark and had your first two beautiful babies, Alec and Carly. As luck would have it we bumped into each other and you were looking for a babysitter. You immediately asked if I wanted a part time job and of course I took you up on the offer. For the next few years I would watch Alec and Carly a few afternoons a week. You told me to call you "Robin". It took me quite a while, but I finally got used to it. You were no longer my teacher, you were now my friend. Once I graduated from college and began my nursing career it became harder and harder to keep in touch. Thank God for Facebook. We reconnected yet again. You had another baby, Amelia. I was married with two daughters of my own. The last time I saw you was when you gave me a large bag of Halloween costumes for my girls. You had made them for your children and they had outgrown them. You told me that you wanted them to go to someone that you "loved". Meeting up with you that morning at Fisk was the last time I got to see you and give you a big hug. We promised each other that we would get together but the time quickly got away again. I still have the bag of costumes. My girls wear one or another each year. More than that, I have a lifetime of beautiful memories. Third grade, shaving cream, The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, pumpkins and pumpkin seeds, Red Sox games, PINK. The list goes on and on!! Thank you for being one of the best people that I have ever known. I love you and will always remember your beauty, kindness and smile. Mark, Alec, Carly and Amelia my prayers are with you all. Until we meet again Robin.... xoxoxoxoxoxo

“ I had the pleasure of working with Robin 20 years ago as a 1-1 Para within her classroom! What a gift she had for making learning so much fun!!! I recall the covered wagon that she used to sit in to read the children stories! She allowed some to sit inside with her on a rotating basis! The excitement with the ones chosen to sit in her wagon with her was obvious!! I was in awe of her teaching style and the way the students responded to her said it all!! Rest in peace Robin and God Bless your husband, children, family and close friends!!

One of her favorite memories was the Halloween party and she was in awe of your pumpkin carving abilities. “ You were the most amazing person. You gave me the opportunity to make so many great memories with you that will last with me forever. I remember when I was young, I would also go to your house and we would do some type of arts and crafts. We would make christmas trees out of ice cream cones, frosting, and candy. One time we even made rabbits out of toilet paper rolls. Those were some of my favorite memories growing up and they were spent with you. I especially thank you for always taking me places with you and having me try new things. I remember just two years ago you brought me white water rafting. We had all been swimming in the water and then all had to get back in the boats. We all had gotten back in the boats but you were no where near the boat. We were looking for you and you were off the side near the edge of the water trying to save your contact that had fallen out of your eye. None of us could stop laughing or at least I couldn't. You were just holding your contact on your finger while trying to swim back to the boat against the current. So thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life and thank you for making my life a happy one. I love you Aunt Robin and you will forever be in my heart.<3

“ Robin was an incredible teacher and person. One of the most creative people I ever met, she made learning and working at Fisk School so much fun. I will never forget her riding in on her pink motor bike. Each holiday season she decorated the teachers' room with a pink Christmas tree, with presents in pink wrap underneath. She would hold a raffle each day, and the lucky winners would receive a gift that she had purchased at "the depot!" She was kind and caring and will be missed by all.
