“ Mr. Cloutier was a wonderful man. I grew up across the street from him. I spent many hours as a child at his house talking to him and spending time with his daughter, Catherine. After moving from the neighborhood, I loved running into him at Hannaford's. He always had a smile when he talked to me. The last few times I ran into him, he did not remember me that well. I will always have fond memories of Mr. Cloutier and he will always have a special place in my heart. I am sorry I cannot attend the services. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. - Kim Marchand Puopolo
