“ News of Ron's passing was shocking. It has me remembering the times that we spent together, mostly in high school. Ron had a car, a big old red Mercury that he used to pick me up in. We would drive around and pick up a few more folks and just laugh the time away. Ron possessed a wonderful sense of humor and it was easy to get him to laugh and you couldn't help but laugh along with him. Never heard him complain as he always found the brighter side of things. Glad that we had a chance to catch up a bit at the last reunion. Rest in peace my friend. You are already missed. My condolences to Diane and family.

“ Diane & Family, my condolences sent with love & prayers to you all. I knew Ron even before I worked with him in Waltham. My Dad retired from Jordan’s many moons ago. My dad always spoke so highly of him. We had the best times in Waltham!!! So many memories of planning our Christmas parties, he’d fight me on the budget, but he always gave in. Many times we spoke about meeting up here in Florida, however for 1 circumstance or another it never happened 😞 RIP Ron, you are a legend and will be missed by many❤️

“ I was always welcomed by Ron with a smiling face and a hug every time I’d visit the Laforge family for one of their famous backyard cookouts.💕 We all always had the best time and he always knew what to say to make all of us laugh! I will miss him so much, and send my love to all of his family. 🙏💕

“ I have many amazing memories with my grampa. Some of my favorites were on our cross country road trip. Especially in Las Vegas when you were yelling out of the window of the RV to the Elvis Presley impersonator on the strip. You were hooting and hollering and telling him you had ladies in the RV. We were laughing SO hard.
Every time I look at my daughter Presley (your great-granddaughter) , I will always think of that moment❤️

“ My brother was my travel buddy. He always drove (and flew) with me on my many trips to Florida. He even drove with me the day after Christmas five years ago on my move to Florida. I already miss him so much. ❤️

Seems like all the good people in my life are leaving this world! Ron you were one of the most honest, always smiling, genuine, great sense of humored, humble, people I ever met, and I've met alot. When I first started at Jordan's (1987), I was new to the area, and going through a divorce, people like yourself, Dianne and Jerry, helped me meld into Nashua area and succeed at Jordan's. You were always there to help me and the other newbies get our wings, much like I see pics of you with your grandkids, pointing them in a direction in life. When my wife, Marcia was pregnant with Derek(our first and only child), you always had kind words and advice,as a matter of fact, Diane was pregnant with Steven at the same time. Well I've gone on too much, tears streaming down my face, knowing you Ron was a real pleasure, Rest in Peace my friend, and Diane and family, sending you my most sincere thoughts and prayers! Stay strong, hope to see you sometime. Love, Kevin, Marcia, and Derek Rose.
