“ Bob and family, we will always be able to cherish the memories and good times your parents and my mom and Tom shared together. I don't know if I've ever seen my mother smile as much as she did when she was hanging out and traveling with Toni and Ron. Love looking at the pictures of them together. I'm sure the four of them are already planning their next adventures together! Your parents love of life and love of family was infectious and rubbed off on those lucky enough to be around them. Ron was a good man and will be missed. Love and condolences to all.
