Words cannot begin to describe how terribly sad Terry and I are with Sandra's passing.

We have shared 50 plus wonderful years of great times together and although not related Paul, Sandy and the Boys were always considered "Family".

May you Rest in Peace.

“ I am so broken hearted as I am sure everyone is whose lives my Aunt Sandy has touched. We will miss this wonderful person who was special to us all dearly. Words cannot express the sadness I feel. My heart goes out to Uncle Paul, her brothers and sisters, Brian my dad, Aunt Gail, Aunt Dianne, Uncle Ronnie, her kids, Pauly, Dennis and Neil and her grandkids. We are all blessed to have known her laughter and kindness and will most definitely feel the tremendous loss of her beautiful soul. May God bless you all and comfort you during this time.

“ Sandy, we will cherish the memories of the times we spent together. Our New Hampshire/Mairne nature walks. Visits to the beach. Your visits to Texas. The architecture lessons you gave Mary. More beautiful memories than I can recite here. It was a joy just to be in your company. I can see you in Heaven wearing your crown with it's many jewels. All our love, Mary and Dan
