“ We lived next door for so long...Robin and I grew up together and spent a lot of time at each other's houses..Sandra was always so welcoming, and her sense of humor could put a smile on anyone's face! She knew how to set limits, and you learned when to take her seriously...It has been a number of years since I've seen her, and I am absolutely heartbroken for Robin and family that she has left us. I hope she will be in a more comfortable place, knowing this will not be easy for anyone. She will earn her angel wings and look down on us as a protector from this moment. My love goes to all who knew her, and the strength to know that it's ok to do things and process this in your own time...it won't be easy...but know I'm thinking of you all. <3

Love,
Dee Venezia (Trahan)
