“ To Mr. Gajnos, Lisa, Kim and families - I have such great memories of our years on Westbrook Drive and our vacations together. Sharon always made us feel so welcome (and let us do things our mother wouldn't). I'm sure she's hanging out with Helen as we speak! Love, Mary###imported-begin###Mary Jeffery###imported-end###

“ Cody, (also Kim and Gerry) please accept our heartfelt sympathy on the passing of your grandmother. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

Let us know if we can be of some help, we will be just around the corner. Just know the love of those around you will help you through the days ahead.##imported-begin##Robert, Tricia, Kyle & Luke Dubai##imported-end##

“ Gerry, I was saddened to read about Sharon's death. I recall the early years at Western New England College and the fond memories of the times that the Grabiec's spent in the company of Sharon & Gerry.

Carol & Richard extend our most sincere sympathies to you and your family.

Forever in our prayers.
